NEW YORK WHIGISM.

The Raleigh Register of the 23d instant speaks in glowing terms of the " national Whigs" of New York, and congratulates its readers on the prospect of Whig harmony in that State; but the Editor, seeing that we had exposed these allies of his in our issue of the same date, and influenced, we may hope, by a salutary Southern 'second-thought,' comes forward in his issue of the 26th to give a few of the facts in relation to the union of the Sewardites and Fillmorenes, and to express his "sorrow" that the Utica Whigs were in a manner compelled to endorse Washington Hunt and the Syracuse Ticket. Still the Editor neither publishes Mr. Hunt's letter-nor the Resolution on Slavery which forms the platform of the Utica men-nor the fact that Mr. Hunt has endorsed, through the Evening Journal, the Seward Resolutions-nor the further and more pregnant fact.

forty others withdrew:

" Resolved, That while the Whig party of New such extension, a liberal spirit of toleration should be Mexico and Texas, and the creation of Territorial Governments for New Mexico and Utah, in the confiwhich ought ever to be cherished between the differ-ent sections of our common country."

This Resolution, it will be seen, is bitterly bostile to the South. It rejoices over the free State of California, expresses acquiescence in the Boundary and Tenitorial Bills, in the "confident belief" that Slavery will also be excluded from the remaining Territories; but not one word is said about the Fugitive Slave Law! This, then, is the Duer platform-the Raleigh Register platform—the platform which was too narrow for the Seward men who nominated Washbecause it was not strong enough:

confidence in the honest purposes and patriotic motives which animated the Whig Senator and Representatives from this State in the Federal Legislature, upon the course and conduct an earnest desire to seek the permanence and advancement of the best interests of the Union; and although, in the conscientious discharge fering and antagonistic views, we admire the honesty and approve the candor and tolerance with which, upon exciting questions they have nevertheless differ-

a " patriot" by these very seceding Whigs, so much glorified by the Register; and the opinion is expressed that he had been actuated in his course in Congress by an "earnest desire to seek the permanence and advancement of the best interests of the Union "!! But, as we have said, even this would not do; the Sewardites demanded a directand unequivocal endorsement of their champion, and they would have it. This was too much for the Duer and Granger men, for the simple reason that it would inflict a stab on the Whig President, Mr. Fillmore, Seward's rival; and for the further reason that it would give the alarm to the Southern Whigs, who really hate Seward, and thus break up " national" Whigism. Mesars. Duer and Granger were willing to endorse Mr. Seward in a certain way, as the above Resolutions conclusively prove; but here, as a matter of policy, they desired to stop. Well, what was the next step ! The Fillmore men assembled in Convention at Utica-passed a parcel of milk-and-water Resolutions-published an Address of the same sort, in which they approve all the "Adjustment" measures but the Fugitive Slave Law-and nominated Seward's right hand man (Mr. Washington Hunt) for Governor, with a full knowledge that he had written a letter accepting the nomination of the Syracuse Convention, and also expressing his decided opposition to the Fugitive Slave Law. The party was now reconciled; " national " Whigism was again on its legs, and all "true Whigs" out South were expected to throw up their caps and shout.

The following extract from Mr. Hunt's letter of acceptance, will show the grounds he occupies on the Slavery question:

"I should be wanting in candor if I omitted to say that I deplore the passage of the fugitive slave law, in that there is "no precise date fixed for Melle. Jenny its present form. Recognizing to the fullest extent Lind's departure from New York. And the following extract from Greely's Tribune will show how delighted the Abolition Whigs are with Mr. Hunt's nomination:

"The following correspondence between Hon. Francis Granger and Hon. This is what the Raleigh Register calls " national " prove such Whigism?

The Richmond Times, one of the oldestand ablest Whig papers in the country, thus notices these Whig

the true grain of national Whig principles; but, to our apprehension it admits of no construction which Southern men should palliate, much less approve. It embodies, in the plainest terms, the specific proposition, that Mr. Hunt deplores the passage of the Fugitive Slave law, considers its "summary operamodifying it so as to conform it to Northern "notions of personal right?" And can it be possible that any poverty by being industrious. PYFER & CO.

No. 1, LIGHT STREET, BALTIMORE, MD. The long-continued and unbounded success of their House in selling the Grand Capitals, is a matter of astonishment to all our cotemporaries. No wonder, then, that we stand at the head in the estimation of the publie. Some charge it to Necromancy-some to one thing, and some to another, but the grand secret is that we attend most rigidly and faithfully to the interests of our Patrons, believing and feeling that the two are blended.

This has been our beacon from the time we started to become dispensers of Prizes, hence the rapid growth of our business, and the great sucress that has attended the investments of the tens of thousands who have "risked a little to gain much." To try us, is to know us, to know us, is a Fortune. A $5 or $10 invested in any one of the following Brilliant Schemes, through us, cannot well fail to realize thousands in return. Who will fail to make so triffing an investment?

Remember Pyfer & Co's business and success in selling Prizes is such, that $10 invested with them is safer and surer to realize a handsome Prize, than $100 would be with any other Broker!! Grand Lotteries for November, 1850.

Home Manufactory. MUCH has been said in Congress, by Southern members, about the rights of the South. This community and surrounding country now have an opportunity of patronizing their own merchants and those who make up gentlemen's wearing apparel, by calling at the Proprietor's new Establishment, opposite the City market, and formerly the Post office. The Proprietor, having made the SCIENCE of cut-ting Gentlemen's fashionable clothing his study, in the most fashionable Cities, for many years, is now prepar-ed to give satisfaction to all who may want their clothing made. Gentlemen furnishing cloth and trimmings, will thus give employment to many in the City of Ra-hem warranted to fit, and at moderate prices. Gentlemen's garments altered and repaired at the shortest notice. The New York and Philadelphia Fashione for the Fall and Winter just received. Wanted immediately, two first rate Cost-Makers, to whom employment will be given and the highest wages.
